Camdenton Area Chamber of Commerce members have a “roaring” good time at Annual Membership Banquet

The Camdenton Area Chamber of Commerce recently held their Annual Membership Banquet on Thursday, November 16th at The Exchange Venue in downtown Camdenton. Close to 200 business members gathered for this event, many of whom participated in the “Roaring 20’s Speakeasy” theme.

Upon arrival attendees had the opportunity to pose with a pristine 1929 Ford Model A thanks to local John Sheppard. The event kicked off with a social hour where attendees enjoyed bidding on several Mouse Races. Later in the evening, following dinner, a small business portion was covered to which included the election of 5 new Board of Directors (Andy Gibson, Dave Kempker, Chase Walker, Alex Wilhelm, and Shayla Viele) and the election of new Officers (President Amanda Hayes, Vice President Dylan Carver, and Treasurer Natalie Couch) while also paying special tribute to the outgoing Board members and outgoing President.
